

DOWNTOWN ART WALK

September 2018 | 6:00pm - 10:00pm

Find parking in the Commercial Street Parking Garage, free after 5pm on weekdays and all day on weekends

1 Allied Arts Gallery | 1418 Cornwall Ave

Featuring Organic Reaction, an exhibit dedicated to the inspiration and beauty of the natural world, and the art that can be made from it. Featuring work from Penny Bamford, Nancy Canyon, John D'Onofrio, Suzannah Gusukuma, and Shannon Kirby. Allied Arts presents this show in conjunction with Endangered Species, an ongoing exhibit at Whatcom Museum, which highlights artists' unique ability to bring attention to the importance of biodiversity and the protection of endangered species from diverse ecosystems. Together, these exhibits honor nature and coexistence. 6:00pm – 9:00pm.

2 Aslan Brewing Co. | 1330 N Forest St

Featuring the art of Little Talking Tree by Cedar Nabinger.

3 Bank of the Pacific | 100 Grand Ave

Sole sponsor of Downtown Art Walk, Bank of the Pacific invites you to enjoy appetizers, music and art by Paul Kelly, Kat Houseman, and Galina Lintz. Paul Kelly's photography is all about athletes and the landscapes that make them who they are. You can view his work at www.pjkphoto.smugmug.com With influence from western art and the academic art world Kat Houseman's work crosses both fences. Using Oil and Acrylic paint the color pallet is often bright, vivid and rich primarily painting mammal and avian species in portrait like compositions. You can view her work at <http://kathouseman.com>. Galina Lintz uses light and color to make street scenes vivid and seascapes glow. Appetizers are presented by the dedicated team from Hundred North, a chef-driven restaurant with a major focus on sourcing local high-quality raw ingredients from the farmers of Skagit and Whatcom County with nothing coming from more than 40 miles away. What comes out of their kitchen is an entirely unique take on classic dishes with a dash of inspiration drawn from the cutting edge of the culinary world tasting the Pacific Northwest in a new way. Music with DJ Jimmy C, a laid back but PASSIONATE lover of music, versed in oldies, 80's and modern pop. 6:00pm - 9:00pm.

4 Bayou on Bay | 1300 Bay St

Local artist Katie McGarry opens a show of new work in the Bayou Annex Bar. This series in observation will be on display and on sale for the entire month of September. 21+

5 Bellingham Frameworks | 1415 Cornwall Ave

Northwest landscape photography by John D'Onofrio.

6 Boundary Bay Brewery | 1107 Railroad Ave

Jill Feenstra: "My paintings continue to evolve, while maintaining the thread of sameness that points to their maker. I save my optimism for my figurative work, which I use to express life's fleeting beauty and strength in fragility. I am constantly trying new techniques and stretching my limits as a life long artist. Recently I've found myself expressing deeper emotions through abstract work. I find that I can articulate complex concepts and feelings more eloquently once I can circumvent a figure. I have a heavy dread of change and the future, therefore, some of my abstracted works are focused on trying to come to terms with the steady loss of the present. My work is vibrant and stylized, all with a strong graphic hand."

7 Brazen Shop + Studio | 1319 Cornwall Ave #104

Please join Brazen for Art Walk! Our featured artist this month is local artist Jax Mildner. Jax is a local fluid artist, specializing in large format artwork. Her drive to paint stems from a need to translate the beauty she experiences in nature, onto the canvas. Her artwork is deeply rooted in the designs, colors and patterns found in the natural world. The Pacific Northwest lends constant inspiration with stunning forest and abundant seas. Fluid painting is both a creative outlet and a constantly evolving passion!

8 Cafe Velo | 120 Prospect St

Jess Flegel is a local artist and cyclist who has been working with fabric since 2003, and often draws inspiration from photographs and other graphic design elements. This month, at Cafe Velo, Flegel debuts her second series of bicycle themed quilts.

9 Community Food Co-op | 1220 N Forest St

Karen Hanrahan narrates her life through collage and photography. "Collage for me is meditative, storytelling, personally insightful, and sometimes dead-on about the nuances of my subconscious mind. I love to share the process I use to collage and to facilitate and prompt others to tear apart magazines for image sources."

10 Dakota Gallery | 1322 Cornwall Ave

Dakota Gallery presents an exhibition by Skagit artists Troy Gilpatrick and Jasmine Valandani featuring photos, texts, sculpture and works on paper. "There Was No Shorter Way Home" alludes to experiences of journey, path and home as reality and metaphor.

11 Fourth Corner Frames & Gallery | 311 W Holly St

From the Studio of Captain Steve Mayo: Ahoy Mates! Steve Mayo is our September featured artist. He is internationally known for his historically accurate watercolor paintings of sailing vessels. Meet Steve at the gallery on September 7 during Art Walk and on Friday, September 21, 6 – 9pm during "SeaFeast"!

12 Goat Mountain Pizza | 211 W Holly St

Our September artist is Jenna Goodman. Jenna's unique, hand-painted wood art is inspired by the beauty of the outdoors, adventure, friends and family.

13 Honey Salon & Gallery | 310 W Holly St

Honey Salon and Gallery is proud to present "Earth/Sky: Interconnection of the Cosmic and Natural World", a new mixed media collection of powerful images curated to show the connection between the earth and sky through the artists lens, showcased on repurposed objects and the occasional canvas. The inspiration for this show is pulled from the natural patterns and topography of the earth and the vibrant psychedelic colors of the cosmos. Refreshments, artist meet and greet, and more await at the opening reception.

more exhibits on the back!

- 21 Plumb Hair Studio | 126 E Champion St
Come listen to the sounds of watercolor as both artist and medium express themselves in collaborative works of art. Listen to the gasps of agony, sheer joy, and surprise as the unexpected and unpredictable works of art emerge when unbounded creativity of 15 artists meets an uncontrollable medium.
- 22 The Racket Bar & Pinball Lounge | 1220 N State St
Dino Dreamin Embroidery is a show featuring the hand-stitched designs by local artist Sarah Francis. Sarah is a geologist by day and embroidery artist by night. Sarah loves to create embroidery pieces inspired by extinct creatures, mountain landscapes, and queer identities. Each design is original, and is first sketched by hand, and then transferred to recycled fabric (thanks Ragfinery!) stretched onto a wooden embroidery hoop. Every tiny detail is stitched by hand with a needle and thread. Some pieces feature simple, delicate outlines, while others are bursting with color and overlapping stitches. 21+
- 23 Redlight | 1017 N State St
Come for the art, stay for the drink specials and delicious new food menu! Kathryn Hackney (who earned a BA in Studio Art Painting with an Art History Minor from WWU) says this about her motivation: "I paint to experience the ultimate exposure and vulnerability by putting onto canvas a spontaneous vision rather than a planned scene or message. The reward is a connection with the viewer on a visceral level, much the same as listening to music in order to evoke an emotional response. 21+
- 24 Sharon Kingston Studio | 203 Prospect St

Our goal is to paint at specific intersections and be seen along or near the Holly Street corridor. The sponsor Studio UFO will promote the event to the public. This is not a fundraiser. Artists will get 70% of sales.
- 28 Sylvia Center for the Arts | 205 Prospect St
Stop into Sylvia Center for the Arts to have a beverage and check out an exhibit by Evergreen student Max Clark.
- 29 Third Planet | 200 W Holly St
Featuring Karima Torres. As a self-taught artist from Honolulu, Hawaii -my goal is to bridge the gap between spirituality and religion and bring a deeper awareness of mental health issues plaguing society. I tend to use symbolism to portray vulnerable emotions which can lead to catharsis in a meditative or reflective state.
- 30 Uisce Irish Pub | 1319 Commercial Ave
Nuages [pronounced noo-aj] is the product of a passion for jazz inspired by Django Reinhardt, the father of Gypsy (Manouche) Jazz. The quartet continues to build on this elegant style of jazz that is noted for blending an Eastern European Gypsy flavor with a traditional swing sound.

Make sure to save the date of the tour which takes place the first two weekends in October, come and see where creativity begins!
- 35 Woods Coffee | 1135 Railroad Ave
After retiring from teaching, Charles continued working with figure studies, watercolor, acrylic, and oil painting. This exhibition is a result of Charles' interest in the landscape of the Bellingham area, Whatcom County, Borrego Springs area in southern California, Italy, France and the French Riviera. Several paintings were painted "en plein air" while others were painted and completed in the studio.

A Thank You to our Sponsor:

The Downtown Bellingham Partnership works throughout the year to identify partners in our efforts to create a more vital and vibrant city center. The Bank of the Pacific staff have shown great thoughtfulness through their Art Walk sponsorship that has gone beyond financial support. The bank's desire to engage with the community on a deeper level and to truly give back through its commitment to the arts is inspiring. Commitment like this from our partners at Bank of the Pacific is a testament to how Art Walk has served our neighborhood not only as a community event that brings people together in appreciation of the arts but as an economic driver for local business. Thank you, Bank of the Pacific!
